- work efficiently and effectively and independently
- demonstrate time management excellence
- willing to assist wherever needed supporting client work

WHAT WE DO AND WHAT WE BELIEVE

BrightHouse is an Atlanta-based creative consultancy that helps companies excavate, articulate and activate their purpose. In other words, find the true reason they exist which drives every aspect of their organization from commercial success to social value. BrightHouse helps companies leave a positive mark on the world by transforming brands to stands, by turning consumers into advocates, and by transforming employees into zealots—enabling business to drive positive impact. Our clients currently include: Bud Light, Coffeemate, Mars, Stanley Black and Decker, and Hydro One.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

At BrightHouse we believe in harnessing the power of business for social good. A filmmaker intern must be extremely coordinated and able to flip between multiple brands, each with a different approach. This is an internship so you don't need to have any prior work history in filmmaking, but you do need an impressive portfolio and passion for film. We're looking for an enthusiastic person who:

- Watches a lot of film content
 - Can come up with amazing approaches that also relate to the strategy and follow the client brief
 - Has deep knowledge of filmmaking techniques and genres
 - Able to speak Internet

- Capable of concepting and creating for social media and mobile applications

WHERE

The BrightHouse internship program is a 10-week paid internship in our Atlanta office, June – August 2017.
